Equipment will be collected by a Shaw representative at the end of the show (during teardown) or may be returned via courier (Canada Post mailing labels available online). Failure to return equipment will result in increased fees for service and non-returned equipment charges. Shaw will install equipment as close as possible to the vendor's desired location at the discretion of the Shaw installer. Shaw does not provide hardware for telephone or internet beyond the terminals installed for access. Prices shown are before taxes (12%). HD Television service available upon request.

Rates are subject to change as they are bound to regular Shaw Business offers and pricing – which can change after this document was produced.

Tech support available via toll free number 1-877-742-9249.
